MOTHER WAS BADLY BURNED.

Mrs. O. E. Kelley in Critical Condition—Kerosene Lamp Explodes.

St. Albans, Nov. 10.—Mrs. O. E. Kelley and infant daughter were badly burned last night at about 9 o'clock by the explosion of a kerosene lamp. Mrs. Kelley was taken to the hospital this morning in a critical condition. She was burned from her face to her feet in a terrible manner. The little girl was badly burned about the hands and face. Mrs. Kelley sat beside a table, on which the lamp was placed, with the little girl in her lap, when, without any warning, the lamp exploded, covering both Mrs. Kelley and the little one with oil. Mrs. Kelley took the child from her mother's arms and extinguished the flames as rapidly as possible, while Mrs. Kelley unfortunately ran out of doors, giving draft to the flames in which she was enveloped.

"AMERICA TO BE GREATEST."

John Morley Says Supremacy Is Assured.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—John Morley has gone to Washington to be the guest of President Roosevelt. Mr. Morley last night spoke at the banquet of the Merchants' Club at the Auditorium, and declared that free trade, on which the British election would turn this year, would be the salvation not only of England, but of the United States. He praised the educational efforts in this city and discussed the election. He said: "I have watched the progress of the United States with interest and awe. The prophecy that you are to be the greatest Power on earth is coming true. With your resources, energy and strength there is not a Power in Europe that doesn't covet your friendship and good feeling. Your policy should be to keep your powder dry and your diplomats active."

Keith's Theatre.

Every theatre-goer who had the pleasure of witnessing the screamingly funny burlesque sketch "From Zaza to Uncle Tom" which was given its initial production at Keith's Boston Theatre early in the past summer, will welcome the information that a return engagement is to be played by Will H. Murphy and Blanche Nichols, and their supporting company the week of Nov. 14. It is worthy of note, perhaps, that Keith's still continues to be "one of the sights of the city" for visitors to Boston.

Stomach Paralysis

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, properly named, is Paralysis of the Stomach.

When you have water-brash, feel sick at the stomach, have gas or wind on it, or feel as though you had a ball or heavy weight in the pit of the stomach after eating, and the nerves and muscles of that organ cease to act and digest your food, that stoppage in the process of digestion, to call it properly, is Paralysis of the Stomach, and should be treated as such. It is perfectly folly to assist the stomach with dyspepsia remedies and stimulants to dissolve the undigested food. You may get relief, but at the next meal you suffer again. The proper treatment is to build up the worn out muscles and nerves of the stomach so that it can do its own work without assistance, and not only digest the food you eat to-day but to-morrow and forever after; as is done by the use of Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food and Liver Food, which have an immediate action on the nerves and muscles, that control digestion. The price of the Blood and Nerve Food, 50 cents; the Liver Food 25 cents. Book free.

Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Brown.
